NEXT BRANCH MEETING

17th August 2010

www.thamesvalley.nortonownersclub.org

Forthcoming events

Important this one. The Branch will have a stand at the Swallowfield Show on Sunday and Monday August 29th and 30th. In order to bring your bike onto the showground (as opposed to leaving it in the car park) you will need to register it with the organisers. Have you done it yet? Details from Beryl or see www.swallowfieldshow.co.uk. The event has been well publicised in Roadholder so we may meet a few friends from other branches. Gates open at 10:00 am. To find the Show just follow the AA signs from the B3349 to Whitehouse Farm, Spencers Wood, READING RG7 1HS.

Be there or be square!

Editor's musings

In the absence of any other inputs I can report a successful ride out on Sunday. We've had a visitor over the weekend and while she was being conveyed home by Jen I took the Commando for a 20+ mile jog round local roads. After I had garaged the bike I found that our visitor had left behind her collection of essential medication. So on with the gear and out with the bike for a run up to Chesham and back. Not the best of runs with the Sunday afternoon drivers plodding along but reasonably satisfying none the less. Today (Tuesday) as I write the weather has taken a distinctly unfriendly turn. I hope for better later in the week.
