Newsletter distribution

All recipients of the newsletter by 'snail mail' are required to pay Tony £5.00 to cover printing / postage etc. This covers the calendar year. Payment could be the usual folding drinks tokens or second class stamps to the approximate value. To be received in time for the February newsletter. If anyone has paid and not received their copy then please let Tony know.

Editor's musings

Not much to muse about this month. An attack by a flu like virus and several weeks of snow and cold weather have rather dampened the spirits. But the shortest day has passed, evenings are getting lighter or they would be if the continuous grey cloud were to lift and spring must be on the way. Just hope all the salt is off the roads and that we get no more snow. Well one can hope!
